Ahtola, S., see Näätänen	31
Antes, J. R. and R. L. Metzger, Influences of picture context on object recognition	21
Bar-Hillel, M., The base-rate fallacy in probability judgments	211
Boer, L. C., see Vervaeck	175
Brehmer, B., Effect of cue validity on learning of complex rules in probabilistic inference tasks	201
Buckolz, E. and R. Rodgers, The influence of catch trial frequency on simple reaction time	191
Cole, R. A. and R. N. Haber, Reaction time to letter name or letter case (Letter to the editor)	281
Ernest, C. H., Imagery ability and the identification of fragmented pictures and words	51
Gaillard, A. W. K. and J. Perdok, Slow brain potentials in the CNV-paradigm	147
Haber, R. N., see Cole	281
Hayden, R. G., see Izawa	131
Hoshizaki, L. E. F., see Newell	59
Imanaka, K., see Walsh	117
Isham, K. L., see Izawa	131
Izawa, C., R. G. Hayden and K. L. Isham, Sensory modality and method of item information presentation in memory	131
Jones, B., Decision making and hemispheric specialization	235
Martin, M., Attention to words in different modalities: four-channel presentation with physical and semantic selection	99
Martin, M., Effect of list length on recall after dichotomous visual presentation	245
Merisalo, A., see Näätänen	31
Metzger, R. L., see Antes	21
Näätänen, R., R. Porkka, A. Merisalo and S. Ahtola, Location vs. frequency of pure tones as a basis of fast discrimination	31
Newell, K. M. and L. E. F. Hoshizaki, Attention demands of movements as a function of their duration and velocity	59
Nilsson, L.-G., K. Ohlsson and J. Rönnerberg, Processing and storage explanations of the modality effect	41
Ohlsson, K., see Nilsson	41
Ohlsson, K., see Rönnerberg	253
Perdok, J., see Gaillard	147
Porkka, R., see Näätänen	31
Rodgers, R., see Buckolz	191
Rönnerberg, J., see Nilsson	41
Rönnerberg, J. and K. Ohlsson, Channel capacity and processing of modality specific information	253
Russel, D. G., see Walsh	117
Schouten, M. E. H., The case against a speech mode of perception	71
Smyth, M. M., Visual bias in guided and pre-selected movements	1

Todor, J. I., Sequential motor ability of left-handed inverted and non-inverted writers	165
Vervaeck, K. R. and L. C. Boer, Sequential effects in two-choice reaction time: subjective expectancy and automatic after-effect at short response-stimulus intervals	175
Walsh, W. D., D. G. Russell and K. Imanaka, Memory for movement: inter- action of location and distance cues and imagery ability	117
Wolters, G., Attribute models and the effect of frequency and imagery values on word recognition	269
